Kootenai County Food Banks Receive Grants from Avista

Food banks in North Idaho CAP agencies also receive support

SPOKANE, Wash. Dec. 20, 2011: Four Kootenai County food banks are the recipients of grants as part of Avista’s year-end donation program. A total of $25,010 is being donated to food banks in Idaho, Washington and Oregon by Avista and the Avista Foundation. In Kootenai County the recipients are Post Falls Food Bank, Rathdrum Community Food Bank and Spirit Lake Food Bank. In addition, a grant was made to the Lewiston, Idaho, Community Action Partnership, which will administer grants to food banks in Community Action Partnerships in Kootenai, Benewah, Shoshone, Boundary, Bonner, Clearwater, Idaho, Latah, Lewis, Nez Perce and Asotin counties. Funding for these donations comes from foundation funds and company profits. It is not included as a cost to customers in developing retail rates.

“Community food banks are providing vital safety net services in the communities we serve. Through their buying power and relationships with food producers, the food banks are able to leverage donations like ours to bring several times their value to help stock the shelves for those in need,” said Patty Shea, Avista’s regional business manager for North Idaho. “Helping limited income families and seniors meet their nutritional needs is an important part of our emphasis on providing assistance to reduce poverty in the communities served by Avista Utilities.”
